WINE PERSONALITY

In Chile, Eduardo Chadwick was named “2008 Wine Personality of the Year” by the Chilean Food Writers’ Guild on April 6, 2009.

This distinction, which has been granted annually since 1995, was awarded in recognition of his tremendous contribution to the development of the national industry, for strengthening its image of quality, and encouraging the positioning of Chilean wine throughout the world, thereby elevating brand Chile as a world-class appellation.

Just weeks later, during the London International Wine Fair held May 11–14, Eduardo Chadwick was again honoured by the British magazine Drinks Business, with the “Special Contribution to the Industry” award, not only for Viña Errázuriz’s excellent work, but also for the strong commitment to positioning Chile among the world’s best producers, his pioneering spirit, commitment, and passion toward the entire Chilean industry.

These awards are added to Viña Errázuriz’s recent recognition granted by the Vinos de Chile Association as the 2008 Winery of the Year. Viña Errázuriz was also named 2008 Producer of the Year during the 39th International Wine & Spirit Competition (IWSC) in the U.K.

Eduardo Chadwick stressed the importance of these awards that validate many years work with the effort and passion that has made Viña Errázuriz an example of the ongoing search for excellence.
