Viña Errázuriz on the News

Eduardo Chadwick named "Wine Personality of the Year"

Eduardo Chadwick was named "Personality of the Year" by La Cav Magazine and "Lord of Wine" by America Economía Magazine. Both publications recognize Eduardo's passion for producing the best-quality wines.

Two important publications have recently recognized Eduardo Chadwick, President of Viña Errázuriz, for his passion and perseverance in producing the best possible wines from Chile and promoting the country as a world-class appellation.

La Cav, the most important and influential wine and food magazine in Chile, named him "Wine Personality of the Year". In considering Eduardo for this award, the magazine recognized him as a pioneer in the wine industry, citing his active involvement in promoting Chile's potential to produce quality wines and his constant pursuit to achieve the highest quality in the wines with which he is involved.

America Economía, the most important Spanish business magazine in the Americas, features a three-page article entitled "Lord of Wine", which focuses on the heritage and tradition of the Chadwick-Errázuriz family and the launching of Viñedo Chadwick, an ultra-premium wine crafted in memory of Eduardo's late father, Alfonso Chadwick Errázuriz.
